(State size on form. Any medium.)
- 93 A "DRABBLE" - See instructions on back page.

An entry in any of the Classes in the Children's Section must be the work one single child.

Create a ‘Drabble’

A drabble is a short story of exactly 100 words
Your story is to be a fiction story,
cleverly written with a beginning, middle and end,
and written in precisely 100 words!

Your story must begin with these 4 words
“The bookshop was dark....”

There are three age categories:

Class 85 is split into 6 – 8yrs, 9 – 10yrs; Class 93 11 – 15yrs.

There will be a prize of a craft set and a book voucher,
for each age category.

Entries must be on white A4 paper, either clearly hand-written or typed.

Your story’s title and your details as on the entry form must be included on a separate piece of paper securely attached to your story.

Your story must also contain a title (which is not counted in the 100 words).

Entrees will be read anonymously and judged by Dr Sam Littlemore, an author and owner of The Words Worth Bookshop,
and her daughter, Jade, who is writing her first book.

Please hand your “Drabble” entry into Eccleshall Library,
for the attention of Hazel Bradshaw,
Horticultural and Craft Section Secretary,
no later than 4pm on Saturday 3rd August 2019.

If a child enters a class in an age group above their own, that entry will be judged along with all other entries in that class without regard to the age of the child.

Horticultural and Craft Section Rules can be seen in the full Horticultural and Craft Show schedule available at various venues around Eccleshall, and online, from-July

Don’t forget to get your friends and family to enter too - see full schedule in for details!
