Eccleshall Show

Thousands of people can't be wrong... Eccleshall Show attracts around 5000 visitors every year. The show's website and Facebook page receives much attention throughout the year with a significant increase in 'hits' from July to September.

The Show Society makes donations each year to charities which serve the area. Recently, these have included Katharine House Hospice, Guide Dogs for the Blind, Eccleshall First Responders and Riding for the Disabled.

Eccleshall Show started in 1947 with the aim of providing a social event for the local community. It's traditional gymkhana and agricultural roots were cemented in the formation of Eccleshall Gymkhana and Agricultural Society - the organising committee which became Eccleshall Show Society at the turn of the millennium.

Whilst acknowledging the significance of its rural roots, Eccleshall Show has expanded in order to meet the expectations of its paying public. To that end, attractive trade stand rates are offered and a huge range of stands exhibit at Eccleshall Show year on year. In recent years, the Society has invested heavily in Main Ring events to keep people entertained throughout the day and we are keen to provide excellent value for money for all our visitors.

Such expenditure and expansion has to be carefully managed but the Show Society is proud to have brought about the growth of the show in what is an undoubtedly challenging financial climate. Significant development of the show means that it is a very different event to that of just a decade ago. It costs in excess of £33,000 to stage the show.

Equestrian, Horticulture, Craft, Companion Dog Show, Classic Vehicles: From canines to cauliflowers, horses to home-made wines... The Show has competitions for all! The equestrian section is one of the largest one-day events of its kind in the country and attracts exhibitors from across the UK. The Classic Vehicle display goes from strength to strength and in the past decade has grown from three engines to four hundred exhibits.
